About Convergences

Launched in 2008, Convergences is the first platform for thought, advocacy and mobilization in Europe to promote the Sustainable Development Goals and the development of a “Zero Exclusion, Zero Carbon, Zero Poverty” world. Its mission is to organize debates, mobilize thoughts and actions, spread good practices and foster the co-construction of partnerships and innovative solutions. Convergences relies on more than 200 partner organizations represented within its working groups to co-organize the Convergences World Forum, which gathers more than 5,000 participants every year, to write studies and publications, and to organize events throughout the year.

FOREWORD

Communities have always been at the core of the Filipino society. Because the Philippines is at the intersection of numerous issues, be it regarding its exposure to the consequences of climate change, or regarding the challenges of fighting poverty in a fast-growing economy while leaving no one behind, communities are more crucial than ever.

Communities are one of the driving forces for change within a society, and incredible spaces for experimentation and innovation. As such, they are central in addressing the issues of sustainability, inclusion and equality. However, to actually stand a chance in overcoming the scourges of poverty, exclusion, and climate change, all actors in society must play their part, and above all join forces as the scale of challenges calls for collective and co-constructed actions.

For the first time, French think-tank Convergences and Filipino NGO Gawad Kalinga partner to present the first-ever “Barangay Walang Iwanan” event. By engaging the youth, key decision makers, and stakeholders from all sectors, this gathering aims at being the starting point of an alliance of changemakers committed to a 3Zero Philippines: Zero Exclusion, Zero Carbon, Zero Poverty.

We believe that together, we have the potential to transform our societies and communities in a sustainable, inclusive, and ambitious way. The Barangay Walang Iwanan event calls upon all members of society – every company, every civil society organization, every local or national government, every citizen. We all have a role to play to invent the world of tomorrow, so let’s create the 3Zero world we want to live in!
